WILSON WOULD AVERT STRIKE

Deadlock Persists But Brotherhood Men are Confident

HOLD PARLEY TODAY

Will Be Another Conference With President at the White House Tomorrow Morning.

Washington, Aug. 16—President Wilson will receive the 600 district brotherhood leaders in the East Room of the White House tomorrow. The hour for the meeting has not been definitely fixed.

At the conference the President will appeal directly to the labor leaders in his efforts to avert the threatened railroad strike. He will urge upon them the acceptance of an eight hour day with pro rata overtime, pending a more complete study by a commission of the demands of the men for time and a half overtime.

The meeting was arranged when it developed that the committee of brotherhoods, which has been in conference with the President for the last two days, did not have sufficient power to accept such a proposition.

At present the situation is deadlocked. Arbitration appears at present to be out of the question. If a settlement is to be reached without a strike it will be reached only through the ability of President Wilson to exact from both sides concessions which neither is disposed at present to give. The next twenty-four hours will probably decide.

The next move is up to the brotherhoods. Therefore the delay. In brief, the situation appears to be this: President Wilson has put up to both sides the proposition that the eight-hour work day basis be put into operation for a trial period of six months; that the brotherhoods abandon at this time their demand for time and a half overtime pay, and accept instead for the period proposed, pro rata pay for overtime.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The leaders of the four brotherhoods were in complete control of the national railway strike negotiations last night. They are sitting tight like clever poker players. They hold the winning hand. All they wait for is to give President Wilson time to bring the railway managers around to his and the unions' way of viewing the contentions. The union leaders declare they "are completey satisfied."

The railway managers are holding onto their position with tremendous tenacity. They seem fearful of yielding to the President's demands. In fact, the situation last night was a deadlock, even if only temporary.

The managers who conferred with the President yesterday for two hours were to see him again early this morning. The union leaders have been notified to visit the White House at 3 p. m., Thursday, "unless called in the meantime." The managers were again in secret session at the New Willard last night.

The President is said to be standing very firm in his proposition for the basic principle of an eight-hour day. Labor leaders flatly deny that they have acceded to any arbitration, even on the point of time and a half for overtime.

It was learned from an authoritative source that if the railway representatives here do not consent to Wilson's requests the presidents of the railways themselves may have to come to Washington, for the nation's Executive is said to be determined to prevent a strike at all costs. It was even said that if the railway presidents refused to accede to his mediatory overtures, the great financial magnates, such as Kuhn, Loeb, and Co., J. P. Morgan and the National City Bank, would be pressed to prevent the strike.

The managers, it was stated, told the President they would be willing to accept or arbitrate the question of an eight-hour day, but they desired that the details of the operation of the eight-hour day and extra compensation should be determined by the Interstate Commerce Commission. It was said when the President submitted this suggestion to the employes they declined to accept it.

A statement given out late yesterday afternoon by the President's secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty, read:

"There is no change, There is an earnest effort being made to work out a settlement."

ALLIES REGAIN LOSS

British Take Nearly All Trenches North of Pozieres Recently Captured by Germans.

Petrograd, Aug. 16—The Russians have captured Jablonitza, one of the most important gateways through the Carpathians to the Hungarian plains, and have taken nearly 1,500 additional prisoners, according to an official statement issued by the war office.

Berlin, Aug. 16—Austro-German troops under Gen. Count von Bothmer are offering determined resistance to the Russian advances along the Upper Stripa, in Northern Galicia. They have completely repulsed strong attacks in the Zborow-Koninchy sector, according to the official statement of the War Office.

London, Aug. 16—Gains for both the British and French Monday night are claimed in official statements issued by the War Offices in London and Paris. The Berlin statement admits that the British obtained a footing in first line German trenches on the Thiepval-Pozieres front.

Following the advances of last night, the western front was comparatively quiet yesterday both London and Paris announcing that the situation is unchanged. The usual artillery bombardment continued at various places north and south of the Somme and on the right bank of the Meuse.

In the official British statement it was claimed that nearly all of the remaining trenches northwest of Pozieres, on the Somme front, in which the Germans gained a footing Sunday have been retaken.

Paris announced that French troops captured Monday night German trenches on a front of 300 yards long and 100 yards deep north of the Chapel of St. Fine, at the intersection of the Fleury and Vaux roads on the right bank of the Meuse in the Verdun sector.

On the Somme front the French artillery was very active at Belloy, Estrees and Lihons. Elsewhere the night was calm.

The Berlin statement reads:

"Monday afternoon the British repeated their attacks from the Ovillers-Bazentin-le Petit line and continued them with the greatest violence far into the night. They again obtained a foothold in the same section of our first line trenches on the Thiepval-Pozieres front, from which they were repulsed yesterday morning. Otherwise all their numerous assaults, which followed each other at short intervals, broke down completely with very sanguinary losses in front of our positions.

"The French twice repeated their fruitless efforts between Maurepas and Hem.

"Between the Ancre brook and the Somme and beyond this section the artillery battles have not yet ended.

"On the remainder of the front there were no incidents of importance, apart from rather lively fighting southeast of Armentieres, at certain points in Artois and on the right bank of the Meuse (Verdun front)."

358,602 PRISONERS CAPTURED

VIOLATING SPEED LAW

Petersburg Council Increases Fine Upon Reckless Autoists.

The authorities of Petersburg are hot after auto speeders. Several automobilists were fined $20 each in the police court Monday morning for violating the speed law, and on some were imposed fines of twice this amount. The Council of Petersburg has made the fine for violating as high as $100.

Complaint is often made of the great risks taken by some automobilists in Alexandria, and that more accidents to these modern vehicles do not occur is regarded as marvelous. Most automobiling hereabouts is done after dark. Occasionally machines are seen with no rear lights, and it is no uncommon occurrence to see autos passing through the streets after dark at an unlawful speed.

Comparatively few of such offenders are brought before the police court from the fact that they whisk by the police so rapidly that it is a difficult matter to indentify them or to get glimpse of numbers of licenses.

A fine of ten dollars is generally assessed against such offenders in Alexandria.

"Do not think that I, your fellow countryman, will forget the heavy sacrifice the armies have made, and the bravery and endurance they have displayed in just two years of bitter conflict.

"These sacrifices have not been in yain. The arms of the allies will never be laid down until our cause has triumphed."

Petrograd, Aug. 16—General Brusiloff has renewed his general offensive all along the Galician battle front.

ITALIAN SHELLS FIRE TOLMINO

Enter The Suburbs as Austrians Evacuate Burning City

Austrian Fleet Sails From Trieste For Unknown Destination, According to Report

Paris, Aug. 16—Italian troops have entered the suburbs of Tolmina, which is under continuous shell fire, according to a dispatch to La Liberte from Turin. The Austrians, says the dispatch, are evacuating the city.

Geneva, Aug. 16—The Italian advance guard, moving southeast from Gorizia, is within 13 miles of Trieste whence the greater part of the Austrian fleet has sailed for an unknown destination, according to a telegram from Buchs, Switzerland.

The telegram adds that the southern and western suburbs of Tolmino are burning and the fall of the city is expected at any moment.

Rome, Aug. 16—On the Carso plateau and to the east of Gorizia, along the Isonzo front, the Austrians have suffered further reverses at hands of the Italians, an official statement says. Austrian entrenchments in both these regions were captured.

"On the Carso during the night of August 14 the gallant troops of the Eleventh army corps repulsed several counter attacks, and attacked the enemy lines to the west of Sainte Grado and Monte Pecinka. Several sections of the enemy's trenches were captured and 1,419 prisoners, including 31 officers, were taken.

"In the hilly tract east of Gorizia, after heavy fighting, we carried other hostile entrenchments, taking 220 prisoners, of whom five were officers.

"On the remainder of the front the enemy made the usual demonstrations against our positions; at Monte Piana in the Trienz Valley, on the Forame river, at Felizzon, Boite, Monte Colombara, on the Astico plateau at Monte Cimone and Monte Seluggia, near Astico, in the Posina basin and on the Pasubio. He was unsuccessful everywhere.

"Enemy aircraft dropped bombs on Monfalcone, Ronci, Saint Cansiano and Pieris. No casualties or damage resulted."

ALLEGED CAUSE OF STRIKE

Union Leaders Claim Immoral Conditions Are Responsible

New York, Aug. 16—The most immoral conditions for girl workers of any trade in the city, according to union leaders, is the cause of the paper box makers' strike, which spread rapidly yesterday, accompanied by considerable violence.

Girl picketers charged they had been roughly handled and beaten by gangsters hired by the manufacturers.

It was announced last night at strike headquarters that 3,000 more girls had joined the strike during the day, bringing the total of strikers to 11,000. It is expected that 6,000 additional workers will walk out today.

There are 18,000 workers in the trade in New York. Three-quarters of this number are girls.

Morris Waldman, union organizer in charge of the strike yesterday described the conditions against which the workers are now protesting.

"This is the most immoral trade in the city," he declared. "They very atmosphere of the shops and the attitude of bosses and foremen are most dangerous to the girls who work there. Hundreds of girls are ruined every year.

"The girls are paid starvation wages. If the boss, or the boss' son or foreman wish to take a girl out, he threatens to discharge her if she refuses."

Examiners Report $30,000,000 of Intangibles of State

UNDER AMNESTY ACT

Attorney Garnett Made Special Investigation — Announces Heavy "Acknowledgments."

Richmond, Aug. 16—Omitted tax returns on intangibles in Virginia amount to $32,000,000, according to a statement made public by Christopher B. Garnett, executive assistant of the state tax board. In Norfolk a belated return has been made on $12,000,000 and in Norfolk county "voluntary" returns have been made on $6,000,000.

State officers have been surprised and disappointed at the returns made by owners of intangibles to examiners of records under the "amnesty" act of the legislature whereby such taxpayers were to make complete returns for omitted years without incurring the penalty for past failures. Fourteen millions of dollars had been reported, and then there were mutterings of "more to come from Norfolk." Christopher B. Garnett, executive assistant for the state tax board decided to make an investigation. He returned to his office today and said that there was "more to come" from Norfolk—city and county. Richard B. McIlwaine, Jr., of Norfolk city, inserted an advertisement asking all persons to come forward and make reports. They did so, enough of them [illegible] on the lists to avoid the payment of penalties on an aggregate of $12,000,000. All that in Norfolk city, which is very many times more than any other county or city has reported and which is the one pleasant surprise in the whole business of assessing omitted property.

Then along came S. Burwell Bragg, the examiner for Norfolk county, who has succeeded in getting about $6,000,000 on the books by the "voluntary" route. This brings the total for the state so far to more than $32,000,000, and had the people generally attended to this matter the state would have not less than $66,000,000 more on which to collect taxes. All idea of having this as the last year for the operations of examiners of record is declared preposterous by state officers. It is the last time on which owners who have been dodging taxes can get by without a penalty, but as there are now more who still are dodging than have come forward, there will be work for the examiners for a long time to come, for when people die and leave large estates to sorrowing relatives these estates will have to be investigated and reports made on the correctness of the value and the amount of taxes paid thereon in the life of the testator.

The Petersburg police last night arrested the youngest murderer that the State ever has held, and he is confined in the city jail, without any realization of the crime that he has committed. The murder was the result of a quarrel over a cigarette stump. The youthful murderer is named Burt Harris, and he is only nine years old. Harris's brother threw a cigarette stump on the street and Burt and Fred Paul Harvell started for the stump. The two boys both grabbed for it, and as they fought over it, Harris drew a knife and stabbed Harvell several times. Harvell only lived a short while after the stabbing, dying before he could be taken to the hospital.

PRINTER FOUND DEAD

Colored Man Discovers Body of Malvin Page on Wharf at Foot of Cameron Street

Death has entered with its noiseless tread into the homes of well-known Alexandrians within the past few days and suddenly carried off many from our midst, who but a few short days ago were mingling with their fellow citizens in this city.

This morning, however, an extraordinary death occurred, one in which the Grim Reaper took off its victim without warning and without his being in the shelter of a residence. A colored man named Adams found the body of Malvin Page, who is about forty-five years old, lying on the wharf of the Mutual Ice Company at the foot of Cameron street, the man having apparently been dead for some time. Adams found the body about seven o'clock this morning, when he walked out on the wharf. Dr. T. M. Jones, city coroner. issued a certificate of death from natural causes, no marks or evidence of violence being found upon the body of the dead man. The deceased was a printer by trade and had been employed at various times in different printing shops in this city. He is survived by three children, a son and two daughters.

Last night another old and well-known resident of this city succumbed to the inevitable, Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, who lives at the extreme southern end of Lee street, passing away. She was the widow of Francis M. Walker, and a niece, Mrs. Georgie Duncan, survives her. She left no children.

Friends and acquaintances of C. Philip Brawner were shocked at the news of his death late yesterday afternoon, the deceased being still in early manhood, having reached only his thirty-second milestone, and being well-known in the city. He had been employed as local cashier of the Southern Railway Company, with offices in this city, and had been ill only a week, being taken suddenly with Bright's disease. He passed away at his home, 912 Duke street, where his wife, Mrs. Lessie Eaton Brawner, died just six months ago yesterday. The deceased was a son of the late John A. and Ida V. Brawner. His funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 o'clock from his late residence, and members of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, of which he was a member, will attend the services and will give their brother a burial with full Masonic honors.

Robert Allen Daniell, fifty-nine years old, died at his home in Fairfax Courthouse early yesterday morning. Besides his wife, Mrs Laura L. Daniell, the deceased is survived by a son, a sister. Mrs. Howsen Hooe, and two brothers, Charles and Ray Daniell, all three of Warrenton. The deceased was a son of the late Captain Ralph Daniell, of the English army. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Fairfax Episcopal church, Rev. Frank Page, rector, officiating.

Funeral services for the late Charles H. McKnight will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock from his late residence, 208 south St. Asaph street.

The funeral of Mrs. Sallie V. Burroughs will take place tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock from her home 1305 East Capitol street, Washington, D. C., and interment will take place in this city in St. Paul's cemetery.

MEETING OF TRUSTEES

Douglas McLean Declines Position of Teacher and H. C. Nolley Is Elected

A called meeting of the City School Board was held last night. The following were present: Chairman Bradshaw and Messrs. Kirk, Perry, Howard, Colvin, Cox, Lunt, Pierce, Anderson and Thompson.

The meeting was held for the purpose of electing a high school teacher, Douglas McLean, elected at a previous meeting, having sent a letter declining the position. Mr. McLean says he cannot fill the position at the salary offered, $750 per annum, that his services are worth twice that amount; that he would act for $1,200 a session; that the members of the police force receive better pay than that offered teachers; that he is receiving three times more as an an officer than that paid him in Alexandria. etc. Mr. McLean had recently asked an increase in his pay. His resignation was accepted and H. C. Nolley, of Randolph Macon Academy, was elected. He is now in Bedford City, Mr. Nolley says he will act as teacher for the salary fixed by the board.

It was agreed that Superintendent Sweeney appoint S. G. Blanton acting principal of the high school until the return of Conrad Johnson.

At the June meeting a committee, consisting of Messrs. Thompson, Pierce and Cox, were appointed to consider the advisability of incorporating the kindergarten feature into the public school system. At the July meeting the committee reported progress.

Mr. Pierce last night said certain ladies of this city interested in the kindergarten had called upon him recently in regard to the matter, and he would like to be in a position to inform them concerning the intention of the board.

Mr. Thompson, chairman of the committee, stated that when the City Council shall have signified its willingness to allow this increase in the expenses of running schools it would be time enough for the board to act. He inquired of the superintendent the approximate cost of installing this feature in the schools.

The superintendent said three kindergartners would be necessary, who would command $75 per month, and the board would be required to purchase a piano. Two additional rooms would be requisite, as children from four years to six could attend.

Before this question was decided it was asked what action had been taken upon a request that a room for the present kindergarten be furnished by the board. After some interchange of opinion, it was decided that both requests be answered in the laconic words: "No funds; no room."

It was the opinion of Mr. Cox and other members that a kindergarten was useful and practical, and Mr. Pierce said its installation in the school system was but a matter of time.

The board adjourned after having been in session about an hour.

ENFORCING DOG LAW

Fourteen Persons Cited to Appear Before the Police Court This Morning

The City Auditor has furnished the members of the police force with a list of persons who have paid licenses on dogs, and the authorities are now actively at work seraching for unlicensed canines. Fourteen persons—two white and twelve colored—were arraigned in the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of having dogs on their premises upon which no licenses have been paid.

This being the first instalment of delinquents, the court imposed no fines, but compelled each of the negligent to pay $1.50 for such canines. Officers will procure the necessary permits. It was stated that after today all persons brought before the court for harboring any animal of the canine breed without having a license for the same will be made to pay the tax and be fined also. Hence all persons having unlicensed dogs upon their premises will be compelled to pay two dollars more than the required license.

In a few cases parties cited to appear today were absent. They will be arraigned tomorrow to answer the charge of contempt.

Several times this summer the Gazette has called attention to the dog law. The license should have been paid in June. Flimsy excuses to the effect that the unlicensed animals are "but puppies" will not ward off the law. Any person harboring a dog fifteen days is responsible for it.

CHILDREN'S PLAYGROUND

Patrons Guests of Mrs. H. P. Wilson At Hollin Hall Yesterday

About seventy-five children who are patrons of the children's playground in the grounds of the Washington School in south Washington street and a number of mothers were guests of Mrs. H. P. Wilson at her home, Hollin Hall, in Fairfax county, a few miles south of this city, yesterday when Mrs. Wilson gave the children a delightful all-day picnic.

The children left the playground under the direction of Miss Harriet Kail, superintendent, and the boys' athletic instructor, William L. Schafer, Jr., about 9:30 o'clock and returned yesterday evening about 5:30 o'clock.

The playground committee of the Parent Teachers' Association desires to thank Mrs. Wilson for her hospitality and the following gentlemen, whose machines, together with Mrs. Wilson's, were used to take the children to Hollin Hall: Harry D. Kirk, Dr. Thomas B. Cochran, A. H. Thomas, Dr. Lee Wilkins, Kenneth W. Ogden, Albert Dreieus, The Central Garage, T. C. Howard, Frank Michelbach Windsor Demaine, Ervin Schwarzmann.

THE BLOODY SHIRT AGAIN

In seeking to arouse feeling against the Democratic party, Candidate Hughes' latest dodge is sectionalism—the partisan trick that in the generation immediately following the civil war was called "waving the bloody shirt." The South is held up as a bogey man, and because Southern Democrats, following the established practice of advancement by seniority, hold most of the chairmanships of committees of the House of Representatives the bewhiskered nominee sees a dreadful peril to the nation. The Philadelphia Record calls attention to the fact that Mr. Hughes does not tell his audience that, if the Republicans secure Congress, all the chairmanships will be held by Northern men and that the South will be left without representation, so that sectionalism will continue as before. That is an unfortunate feature of our politics, but the evil is far less serious under Democratic control than under Republican, because Democracy being a national party, draws its membership from the North in no less degree than from the South, and is strong in the East as in the West. Republicanism, on the other side, has little strength below Mason and Dixon's line.

The truly despotic and vicious manner in which the Democratic majority in Congress wields its power is revealed to us all its iniquity by the Boston Transcript, one of the narrowest and most bigoted Republican papers in the country. Its Washington correspondent, writing under date of August 10, of the eagerness of Representatives and Senators to adjourn and go home, says:

The Congress which is still in action came into session nearly ten months ago. It has been sitting with rare persistence almost every day since that time. It has ground out a mass of legislation which is staggering to recall and imposing to look upon. Its total expenditures have run higher than and previous session of Congress in history, and are probably greater than the total expenditures of the ordinary sessions of two Congresses.

The Sixty-Fourth Congress, while having been nominally under the control of the Democratic party, has been remarkably non-partisan. A study of the numerous roll-calls has shown a very slight tendency for cleavage on strictly party lines. The majority of the big army and navy bills were enacted without a roll call Republicans and Democrats joining in putting the measures through uncontested. Even the revenue bill, which so far has only succeeded in passing the House, received a substantial number of Republican votes. Many of the measures upon which the Democrats are pluming themselves as distinctively Democratic achievements were put through by bi-partisan combination.

Truly tyrannical and devilish, is it not? Of how many Republican Congresses could a Democratic correspondent say as much at the close of a long session?

AMERICA'S SLAVE MARKET.

Alexandrians who have visited the Louvre Musee in Paris may remember seeing a startling picture in the art gallery entitled "A Georgian Slave Market." Those who have merely glanced at the picture will never forget it, as it causes indignation to well up in every honest soul. The illustration is life-size, and represents a number of gray bearded sheiks sitting tailor-fashion studying the physiques of young Georgian girls, said to be the prettiest in the world. The victims are slaves, and their owners are exhibiting them to the cruel looking sons of Ishmael. The girls are compelled to comply with the wishes of the brutal prospective purchasers as they may demand. The look of indignation upon the faces of the young women in passing through the terrible ordeal fires the souls of the those gazing upon the picture, and they feel as though they would rejoice in the opportunity of using blacksnake whips upon the rascals who are thus shocking female innocency. Some of the victims are being accelerated by their owners in compliance with the request of the prospective purchasers, while others, having passed through the greatest trial of their lives, are rearranging their habiliments, with the glow of shame upon their cheeks.

Such scenes have been enacted from time immemorial in the Orient, and persons who have studied the picture described above never for once supposed such things could be done in a civilized country in the twentieth century; but let us see.

One dollar a pound is the price actually paid in several instances for immature girls auctioned off by white slavers to proprietors of disorderly resorts in New York, Assistant District Attorney Smith, prosecuting the vice trust, declares.

From men and women now under arrest and awaiting trial, Smith has obtained the most amazing confessions of the workings of the white slave gang. Not only did they systematically set about to obtain school girls for resorts, but they maintained a house, where young girls, sometimes partly and sometimes completely disrobed, were sold to the highest bidder.

GRATUITOUS INSOLENCE.

One of the most egregious blunders made by Justice Charles E. Hughes in his campaign has been his gratituously insulting reference to Mr. E. Lester Jones, of the Coast and Geodetic Survey.

Mr. Hughes does not bring an accusation that Mr. ones is not a perfectly competent and faithful official, but endeavors to hold him and those responsible for his appointment up to ridicule by declaring that he was a "horse doctor."

The Richmond Virginian in referring to this declaration upon the part of the would-be President says as a matter of fact, Mr. Jones was a practical farmer, who had equipped himself to care for his own herds in case they should become sick. It's a great pity that there are not more of us in the country who are "horse doctors."

And if we should have some "horse sense" we do not understand how that would put us so far below the level of other persons—even New York lawyers and politicians.

Lincoln was a fine hand at splitting rails, but we don't suppose Mr. Hughes would care to reflect on the first and probably the only great man the Republican party ever put into the White House. We don't believe Lincoln would have hesitated a moment at playing "horse doctor" if a neighbor had happened to have a sick animal.

Probably Mr. Hughes may know his own game, but we would recommend that he display his humor in other ways than by making such childish and utterly foolish references to his political opponents.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Lloyd's brokers have reduced quotations on the ending of the war by the first of the year to 9 to 10.

Private advices from an authoritative source in Kiel are to the effect that a new sea battle between the German high seas fleet and the British grand fleet is to be expected in the very near future.

Announcement was made yesterday that order had been restored at Mangulta, Cuba, where 3 men were killed and three others wounded in a political riot Monday. Liberals invaded a conservative rally and a fatal fight followed.

The war bill of France to the end of July was 39,000,000,000 francs. The miscellaneous expenses of the government were 10,000,000,000 francs. The average cost of the war, the figures show, is now 1,87,000,000 francs monthly.

Andrew Matsel, of Wisconsin, employed at the Blair quarries, near Hagerstown, Md., committed suicide near Blairton late Monday night by exploding a stick of dynamite against the top of his head. The explosion tore his skull to pieces. It is believed the man was demented.

Charles E. Hughes told two big audiences in Seattle and Tacoma yesterday that he would not shirk war if it came through the performance of an obvious duty. With this declaration he coupled a plea for international agencies which will compass a lasting peace.

A dispatch from Amsterdam says that seven Belgians who were tried before the same court-martial that condemned Capt. Charles Fryatt, of the steamer Brussels, were executed and that the total number of Belgians shot for treason by the Germans up to date is 500.

Great damage has been done to banana plantations in Kingston, Jamaica by a storm which has been raging since Monday. The full force of the disturbance was expected to strike the island last night. No reports have been received with regard to the storm from Eastern Jamaica.

With only 51 votes recorded against the measure, the House of Representatives late yesterday passed the Senate amendments to the naval bill providing for the construction of eight capital ships—four battleships and four cruisers—and carrying appropriations aggregating $315,800,000.

The high cost of living will affect book-lovers, for the publishers have decided to increase the cost of current publications from 10 to 25 cents, according to size. Books formerly selling from 50 cents to $1 are now rated 10 cent higher. Those in the past priced from $1 to $2 are sold at an increase of 25 cents each.

Formal notification to President Wilson of his nomination will take place September 2. That day was definitely selected yesterday when arrangements were made for the President to go to Long Beach, N. J., for the ceremony. The President has already completed his speech of acceptance. The notification speech will be made by Senator James

The paper famine was reflected yesterday in an auction sale here of old paper, ordered by David Ferguson, supervisor of the City Record, in New York. One lot of 9,000 pounds, composed of unsold copies of the City Record, brought $1.65 per 100 pounds. Another lot of unused paper, weighing 6,000 pounds, brought $2.60 per 100. Normally sales of such paper bring from 20 to 50 cents per 100.

Five hundred familes have been made homeless at Hannibal, Mo., and hundreds of acres of land were flooded by a sudden rise in Bear creek, which flows through the city. The flood was due to a four-inch rain Monday night. No lives were lost, according to available reports, although many narrowly escaped drowning.

Julian Pierce, Socialist lecturer, at his own request, was remanded to jail for one week, when Judge Pugh, in the police court of Washington, yesterday, granting another plea of the prisoner, continued for one week his trial on the charge of violating the police regulations in making a speech at the public forum without a permit. He declined to put up bail or collateral.

After a conference yesterday between President Wilson and the members of the Democratic campaign committee, Vance C. McCormick, chairman of the national committee announced that the President would make no speaking tour, but probably would accept invitations to speak at different places. Mr. McCormick explained the President's decision by saying Mr. Wilson considered a stumping tour incompatible with the dignity of the office of President.

Great Britain is rapidly becoming independent of American munitions supplies, according to a statement made yesterday in the British house of commons by Hon. Edward Samuel Montagu, Minister of Munitions. "The American supply of heavy shells has been invaluable to us," said Mr. Montagu, but with the increasing home and Canadian supplies, we hope to be able to do without American shells altogether."

A new "torpedo catcher" to be tested officially by the United States authorities arrived yesterday at New London, Conn., from Bridgeport and was towed to the torpedo station at Newport. The torpedo catcher was invented by Fred Lapan, of Milford, Conn., and is reported to be the only successful one of its kind. Its use by the United States government seems assured. The inventor asserts it will absolutely protect ships from damage by torpedoes. It will be used also for saving torpedoes during practice.

The Brooklyn Daily Eagle prints the following interview granted its correspondent at Lisbon by President Bernardino Machado, outlining Portugal's plans for sending an army to France and co-operating more actively with the entente powers. "Our troops will take the field in France," he said, "at the precise moment the British, French, and Portuguese general staffs decide Portuguese aid is necessary to exert the maximum pressure. Our military efforts in Europe will be made with our money and our own resources as a nation. Great Britain has agreed to loan us whatever sums are necessary."

The body of D. Franklin Fulk, 30 years old, arrived in Harrisonburg, Monday from Dayton, Ohio. Fulk left here several weeks ago and secured employment in the National Cash Register Company factory. On Friday he was killed in an explosion while at work. He worked in a restaurant in Harrisonburg, and several months ago was a member of the police force at Hopewell.

Judge John W. Price filed yesterday, in the Corporation Court at Bristol, one of the first damage suits to be instituted under the Federal employers' liabilty act. Mrs. Rosetta Dowell, administratrix of the estate of her husband, John A. Dowell, sued the Virginia and Southwestern Railway for $50,000 for the death of her husband. Dowell was an engineer and was killed in March when his engine turned over.

"Eleven cases of infantile paralysis are reported in Virginia this month," says Dr. Ennion G. Williams, state health commissioner, The cases are widely scattered and appear to have no connection with each other. There is no occasion for any alarm, but it is necessary for everybody in all parts of the state to clean up their premises and burn all refuse matter. Drinking from the same glass or dipper should not be allowed."

William Werner, a son of Conductor J. P. Werner, of Clifton Forge, was run over and killed by a Chesapeake and Ohio train on Saturday about a mile east of Clifton Forge. The body was found on the tracks. It is supposed that Werner was on his way to visit at his home, from his work in Bluefield, W. Va., when he fell from the train and was killed. He was a machinist, and at one time was employed in the Chesapeake and Ohio shops at Clifton Forge.

To thwart an effort to place her in the Bon Air home for wayward girls, Mary Bundix, alleged to be 16 years old, drank poison in the private office of the police court in Norfolk, Monday afternoon, after she had been tried on a charge of frequenting a house of ill fame and placed under a $100 good behavior bond. When arrested she gave her age at 22, and shortly after it was learned that she was probably young enough to be sent to Bon Air she drank the poison. A stomach pump was used and she is now resting quietly.

Charles L. Williams of Suffolk, driving Sunday, on the Norfolk road, was held up by two negroes, who jumped up on the running board of his car, one on each side. One of the negroes held a gun in his hand. Mr. Williams was accompanied by his wife, who was holding a loaded pistol in her lap. Mr. Williams grabbed the pistol and shot one of the men through the shoulder, and as he turned to shoot the other, the car ran into the ditch, Both negroes ran off and Mr. Williams stayed by the car, holding the gun and soon a car driven by J. Crocker came along and gave him assistance in getting his automobile out of the ditch.

"Would you have fired at the Deutschland had you met her?" the captain of the French steamer Mexico which arrived at Norfolk yesterday with a cargo of cigars and liquors, was asked. The interview terminated with a shrug which did not reach its highest altitude until the captain's shoulders brushed his ears. Customs officials say the fact that the vessel carries a gun mounted on her after deck will not prevent her getting clearance papers. It is only a 2 1-2-inch gun. The Mexico also carries 150 rounds of ammunition. She came from Havre, and after loading coal and grain will sail for Martinique via Havana.

Contending that they were Seventh Day Adventists, and, as followers of such faith were immune from the Sunday closing statute, four Forest Hill park amusement owners yesterday appealed from the decision of Police Justice Maurice in fining them $20 each and requiring security of $250 for each man. The defendants are R. C. Kithcart, manager of the park; R. H. Plowman, operator of the pony ring; S. S. Puryear, who has the toboggan slide concession, and William Harris, owner of the merry-go-round. Kithcart, Harris and Puryear were each fined $10 last week for operating their concessions the previous Sunday.
